Art Focus: Michael Craig-Martin

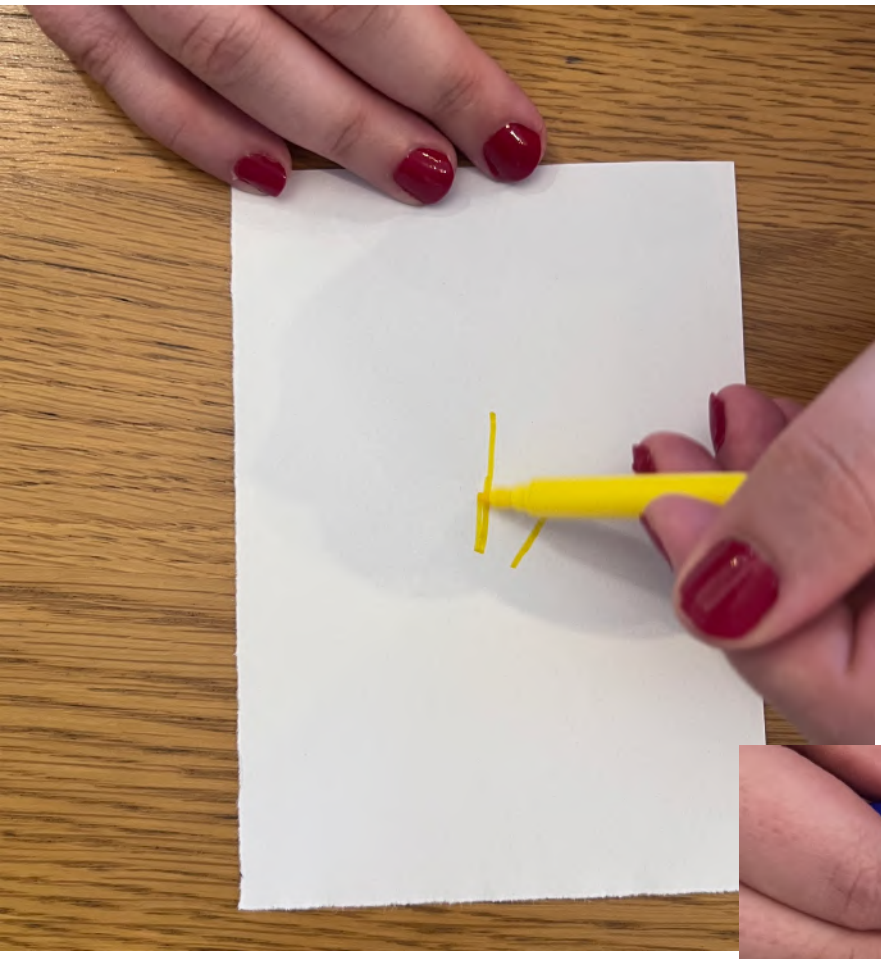

Taking inspiration from Michael Craig-Martin, an Irish born Contemporary Artist, he is known for his large-scale bold, colourful artworks of everyday objects

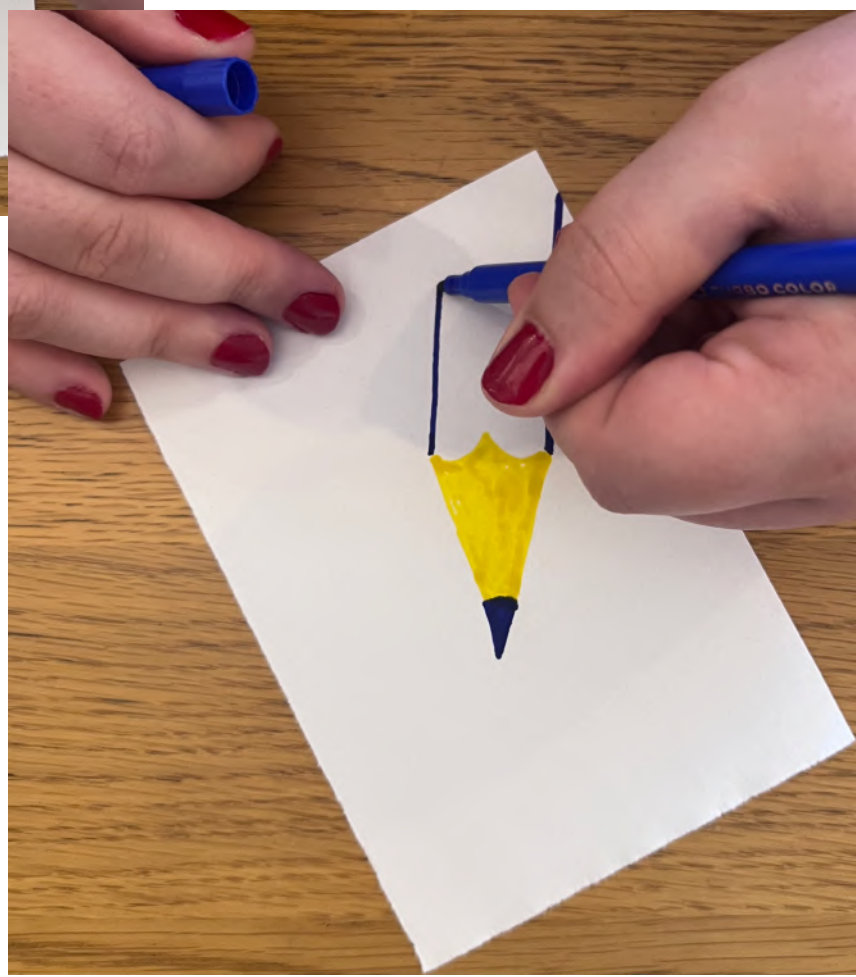

Tools and Materials:

- Postcard-sized Paper
- Felt Tips

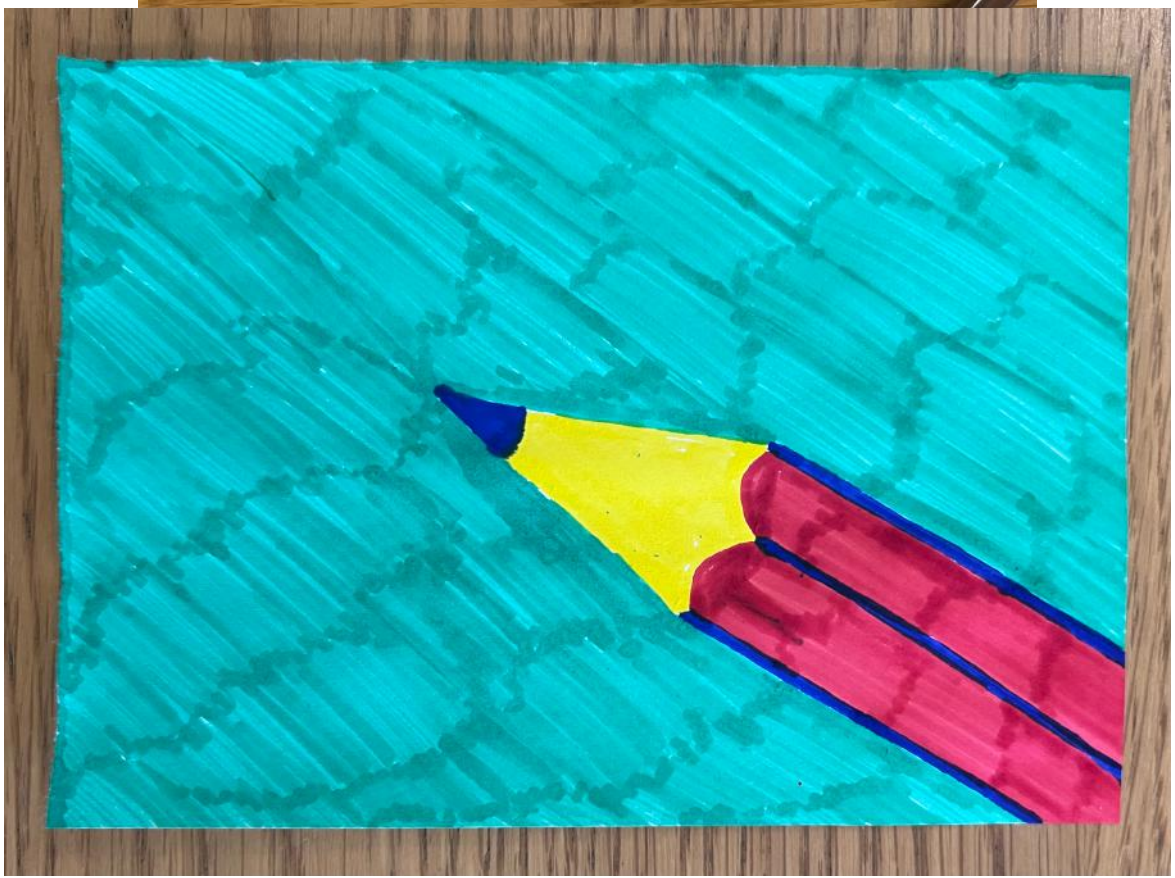

To get postcard sized paper we took A4, folded it in half and then half again to create quarters - one bit of A4 will give you 4 postcard sized pieces. Because we aren't using pencil (it would show through the felt tip) have a think about what it is you want to create, you can also use another bit of paper to plan our your design first!

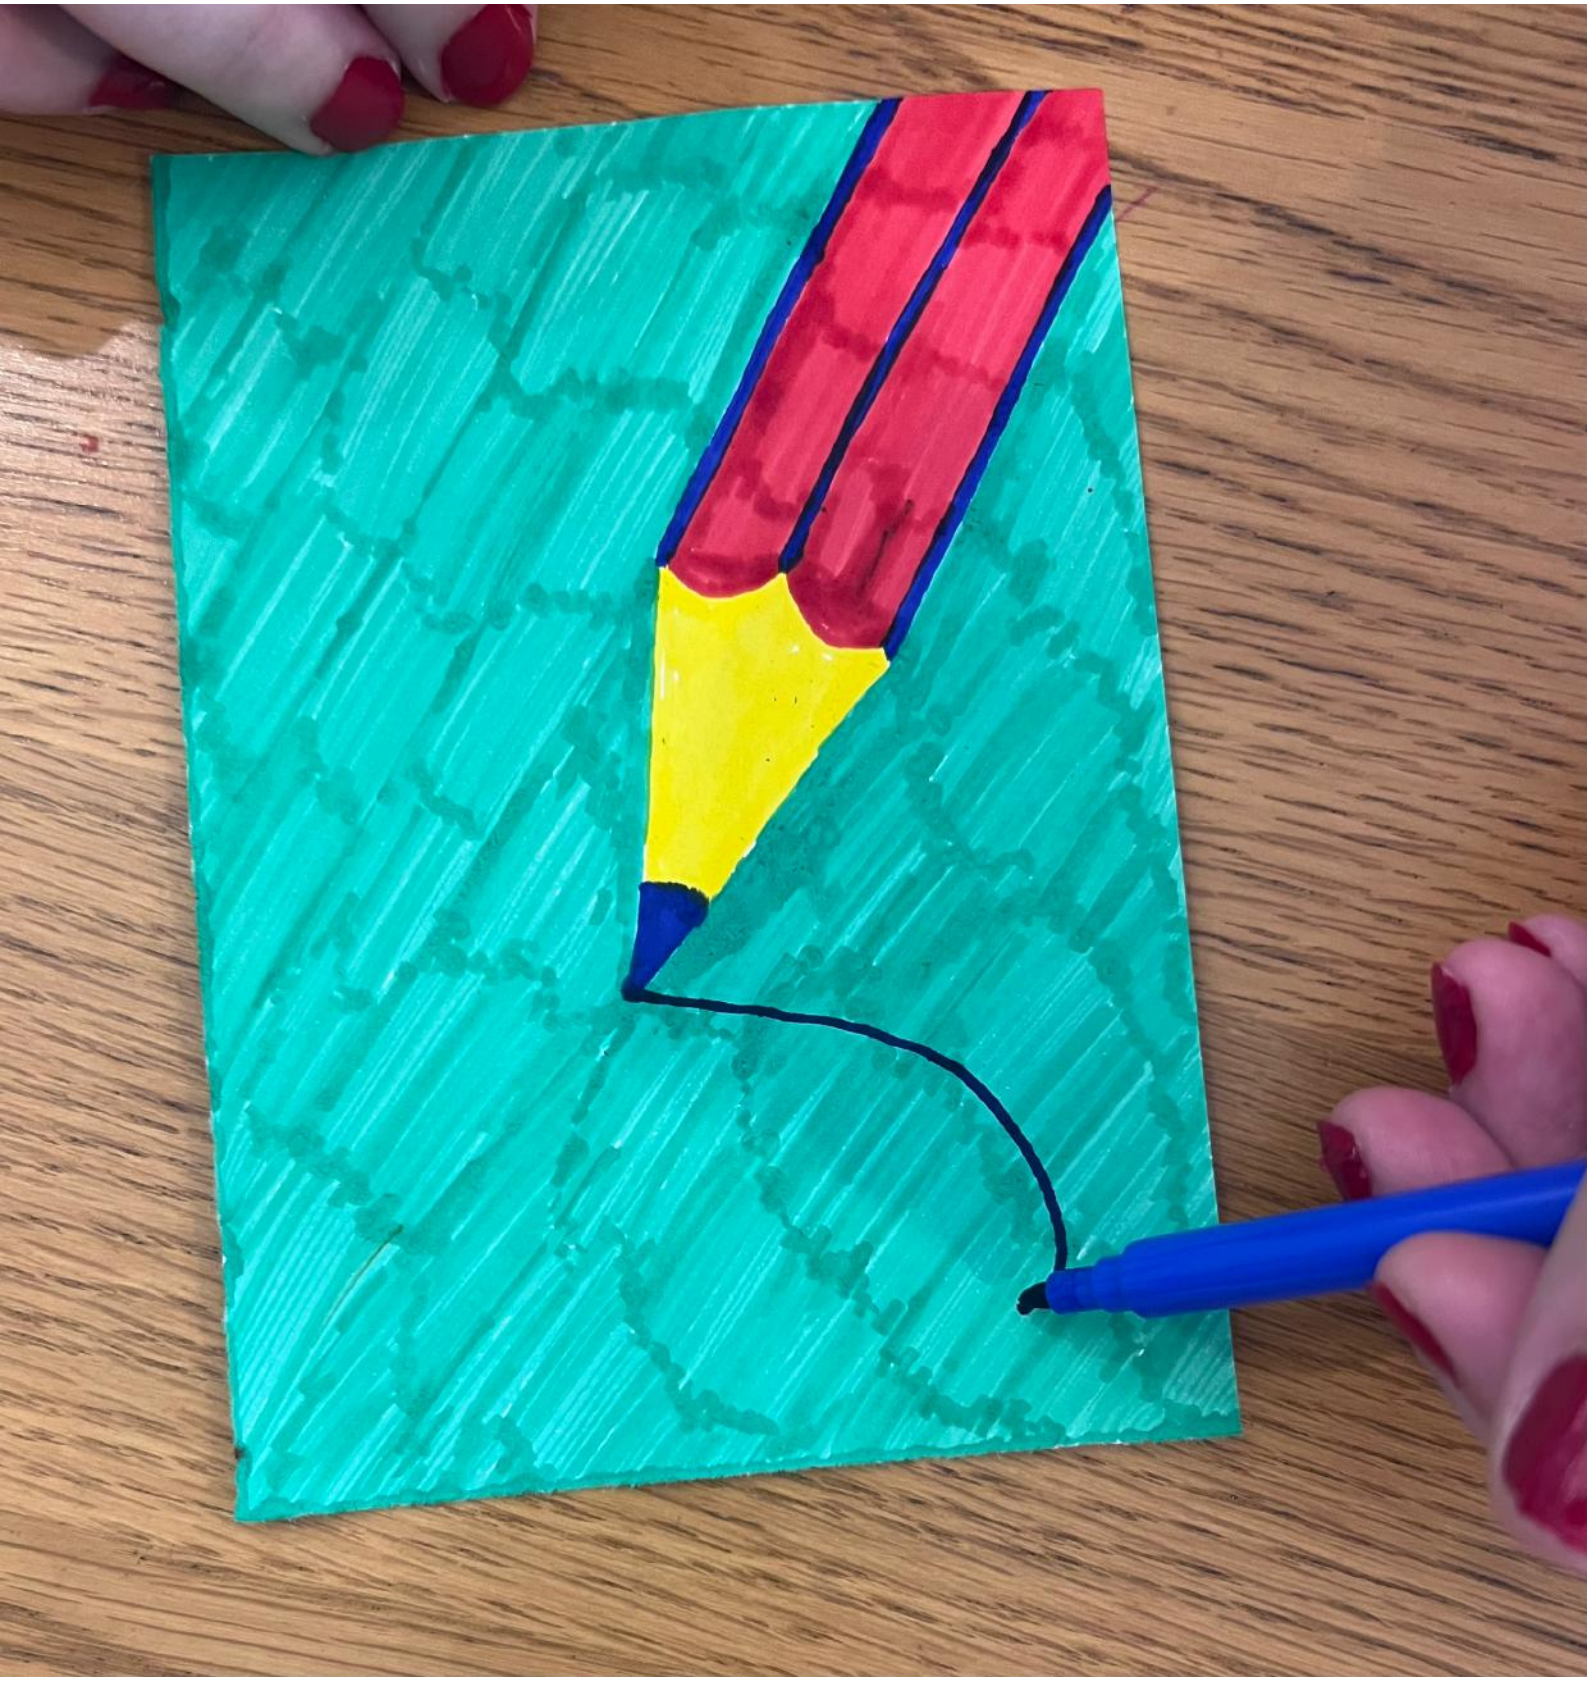

Once you have sketched out your image - we chose a pencil (changing the colour for the different sections) you can colour in the rest of the image like so

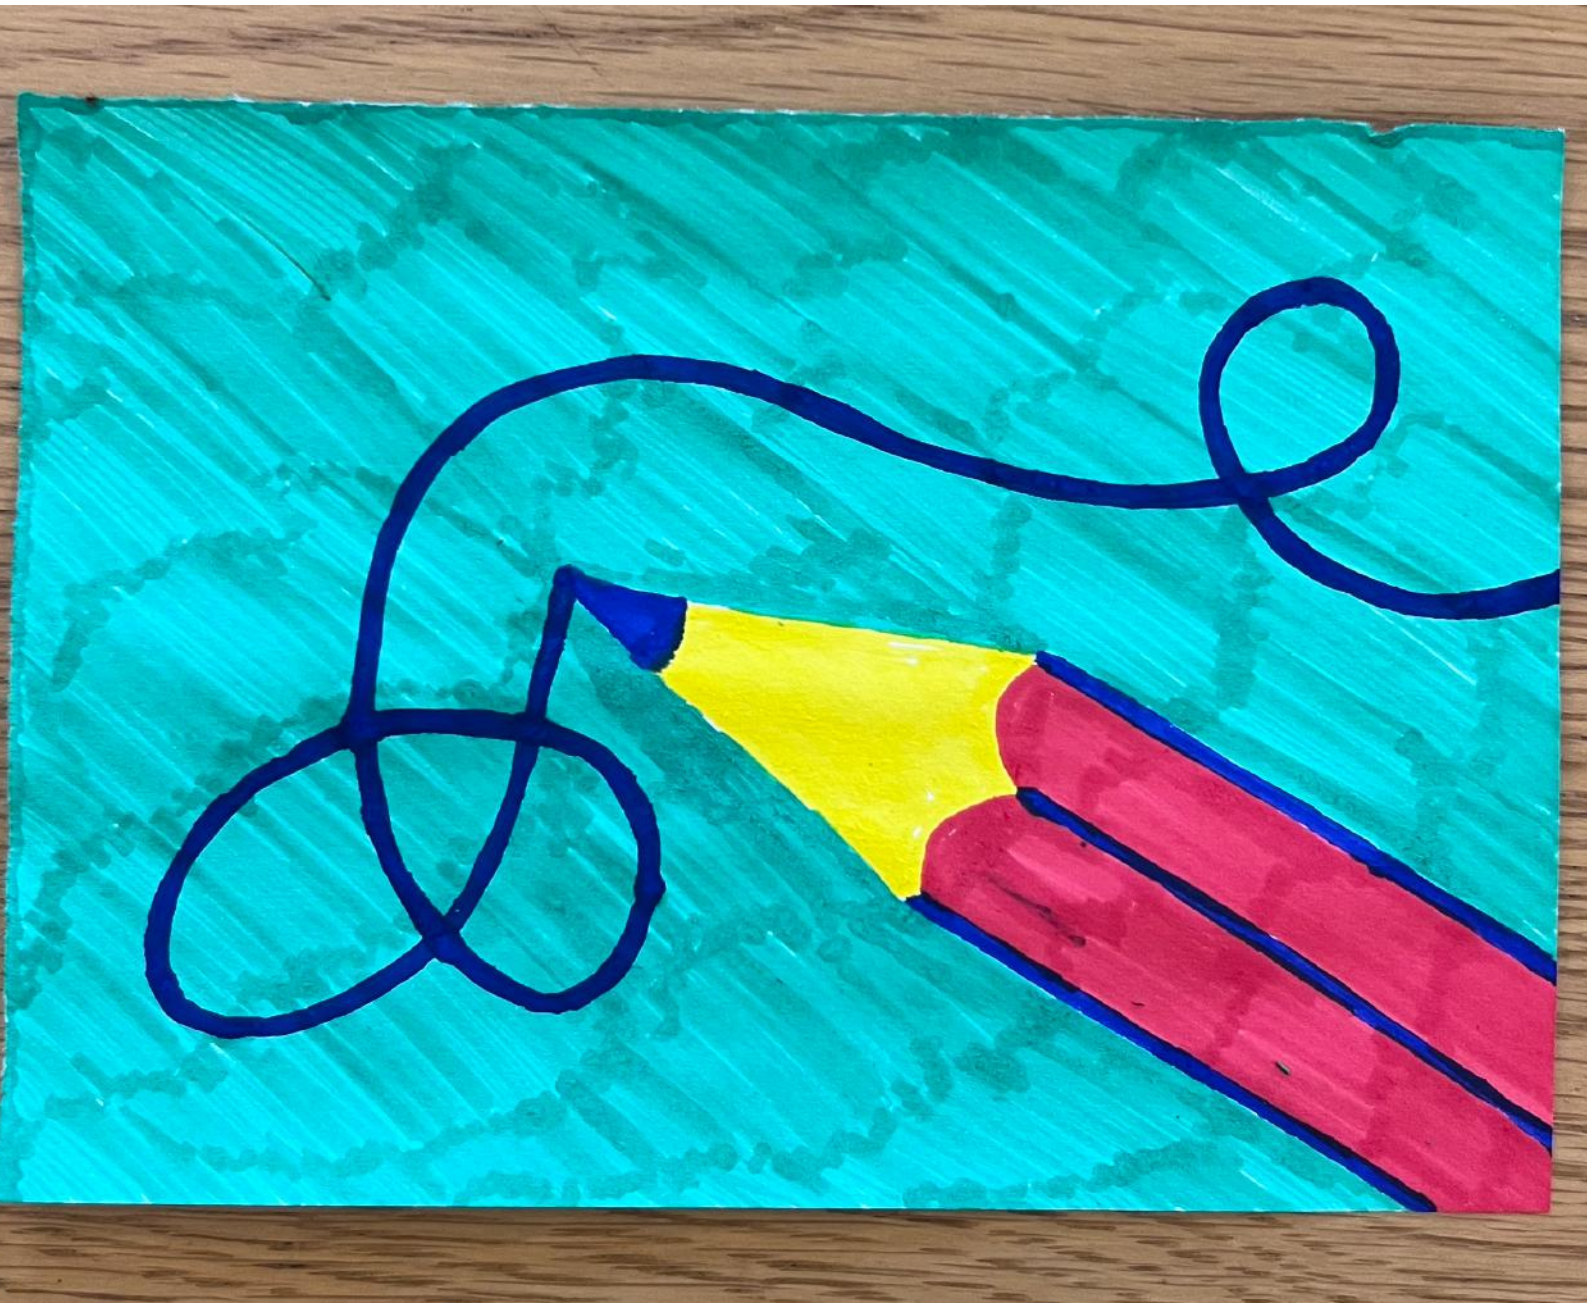

Once we finished our drawing we thought it would be fun to add a “pencil line” to create movement across the page

There you have it your very own
“Michael Craig-Martin inspired Drawing!”

Here is another we made to inspire you!
