Art Focus: Peter Doig

Celebrating Halloween why not create your own Spooky Silhouette of a Horrible Haunted House!

Tools and Materials:

- White Paper
- Aquarelle or Oil Pastels or Wax Crayons; whichever you happen to have!

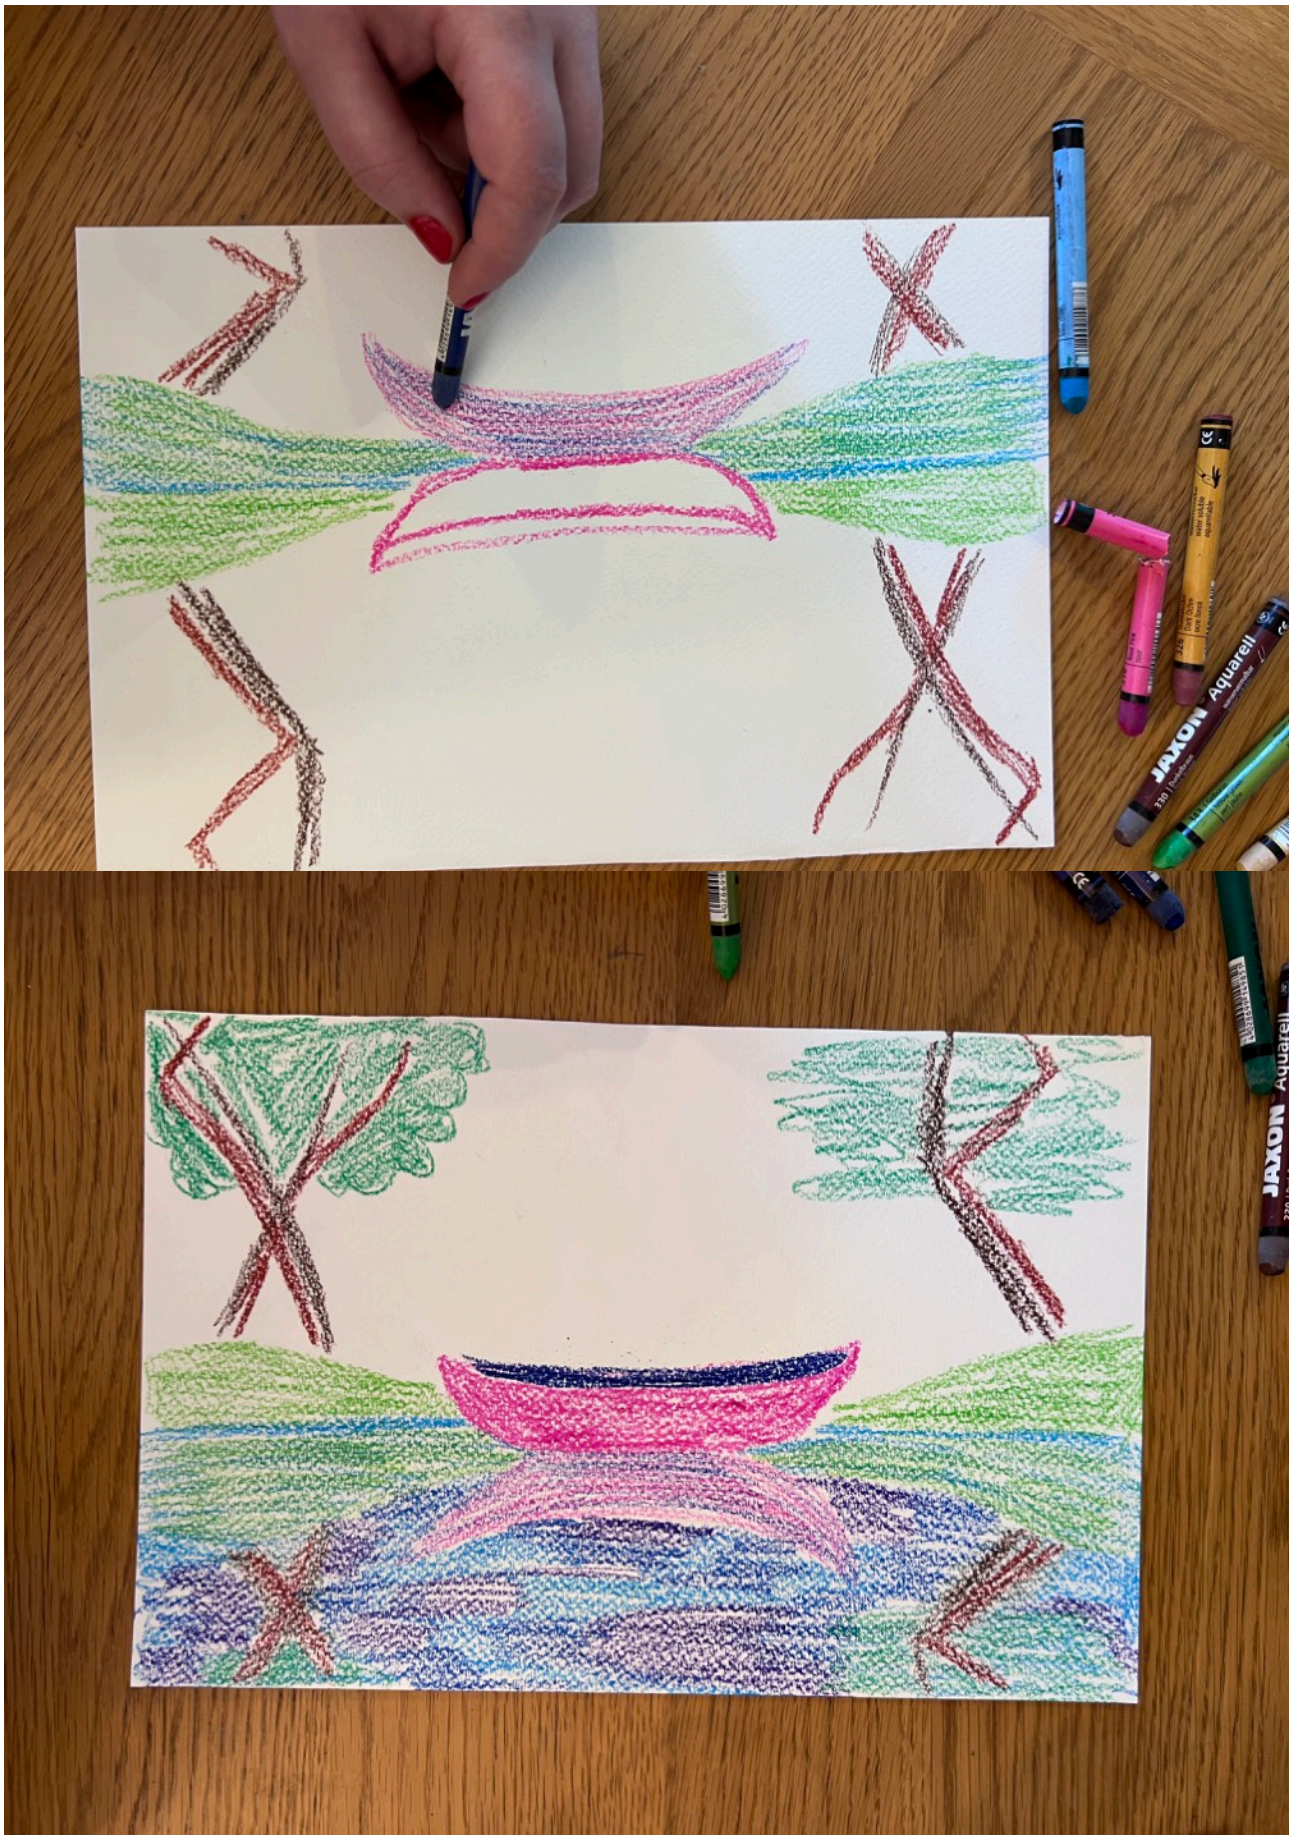

Peter Doig is a Scottish Artist who moved to Trinidad at a young age with his family and then over to Canada, though he was sent to boarding school in Scotland in the late 1960's/early 1970's. His work is distinctive for almost "dreamy" landscapes often featuring boats and water. His use of colour whilst not realistic adds to his often intricately painted pictures. We wanted to simplify his work and focus on his use of colour and reflections with water - start by sketching out your scene

We wanted a boat as the focal point of ours

Flip the drawing round to echo the elements as reflections in the water like so, then adding in the water and sky - thinking about the colours and mark-making you want to use

There you have it your very own
“Peter Doig inspired Artwork”!

Here is another we made to inspire you!
