

Autumn Poems

Taking inspiration from Autumn why not create a poem in the shape of something or Autumnal or in another format!

Tools and Materials:

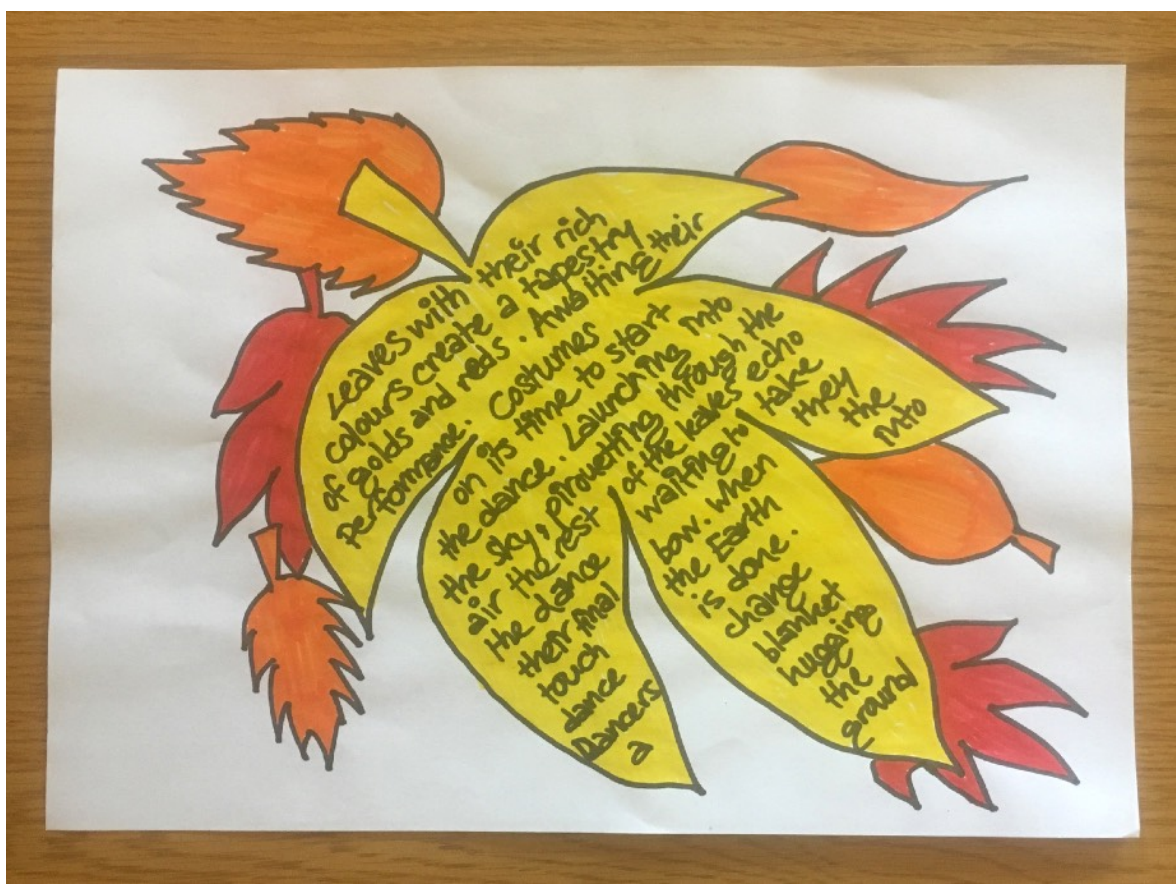

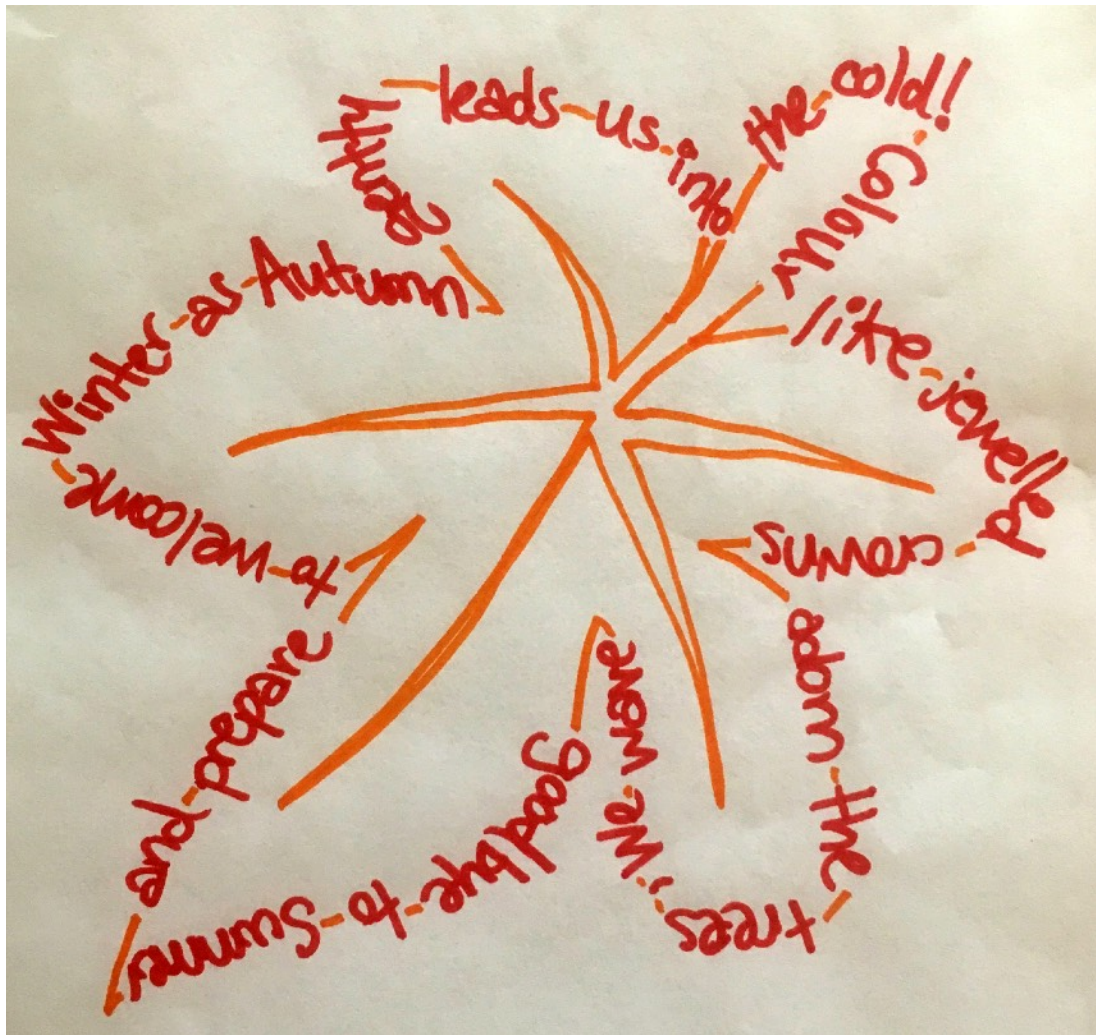

- Paper
- Felt Tips
- You might want scrap paper and a pencil to work out what you are doing first!

First of all think about what you want to write about? If you are writing in a shape it doesn't have to rhyme it can just be more descriptive - we thought it would be fun to write about jumping in leafs so welly boats is good!

Here are some other versions of poems we created to give you inspiration!

Awaiting the colour change of leaves
Super sUnssets emblazen the sky
Trees saluTe with their fiery coats
TUmbling leaves circle for their last dance
Misty Mornings look magical mou Nds of leaves to play in!

There are many different types of poems you could do - just have fun with it! The main thing about poems is painting a picture with words, so start thinking about different adjectives you know to be able to do this!
