

Christmassy Clementines

This is a really fun traditional Christmas Craft known in the Victorian times as Christmas Pomanders which smell divine - you can make a few as decoration for around the house to smell Christmassy!

Tools and Materials:

- Clementines
- Cloves

Take your cloves and pierce them through the clementine skin - you can make a variety of patterns like spirals, dots, stars - whatever you fancy!

There you have it your very own “Christmassy Clementines”
