

Design your own Emoji

Did you know it is World Emoji day on the 17th July! Emojis are quite a major part of modern language and are understood universally - whilst there are many Emojis what Emoji would you like to exist that doesn't already?

Tools and Materials:

- Paper
- Felt Tips
- Pencil

First of all think what Emoji you would love to have that doesn't exist - you can look online for inspiration. We would really like a Flamingo Emoji! So what would it look like? Draw it out and colour it in Ta-dah! There you have it your own Design an Emoji!
